

SER VS. ESTAR

I. WRITE THE FORMS OF THE FOLLOWING VERBS:

SER: _____

YO NOSOTROS

TÚ VOSOTROS

ELLA USTEDES

ESTAR: _____

YO NOSOTROS

TÚ VOSOTROS

ELLA USTEDES

II. Look at the following sentences: what do they have in common?

Yo soy alta. Ella es rubia. Él es honesto.

Look at these sentences: what do they have in common?

Mateo es de los Estados Unidos. Eva es de España. Juan es de Cuba.

Here are a few more sentences. What do these have in common?

Ella es médica. Señor Rodriguez es el farmacéutico. Marta es una alumna.

All of these sentences use SER as the verb. Based on what you saw, state the rules for using SER:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

SUMMARY: _____ YOU ARE AND _____ YOU ARE!

III. Look at the following sentences and tell what they have in common:

Ellos están tristes. Yo estoy contenta. Tú no estás nervioso.

Here are a few more...what do they have in common?

Ella está enferma. Teodoro está resfriado. Yo estoy cansada.

Just a couple more...what do they have in common?

Yo estoy en la escuela. Ella está en el hospital. Marcos está en la farmacia.

All of these sentences use ESTAR as the verb. State the rules of ESTAR based on your observations.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

SUMMARY: _____ YOU FEEL AND _____ YOU ARE!!