

D. SPAIN

Here is a map of España, the country in Europe (see your map of the Spanish-speaking World) where the Spanish language was first spoken. Maybe Spain will be your homestay destination. Let's look at some geographical terms in Spanish.

A. How do Spanish-speaking students write the following?

1. Atlantic Ocean _____

2. Mediterranean Sea _____

3. Strait of Gibraltar _____

B. Search the map to find the following information.

1. Circle three major mountainous regions on your map.
2. Name the river that flows through Sevilla. _____
3. Which very long river begins in Spain and runs through Portugal to the Océano Atlántico?

4. Which river empties into the Mar Mediterráneo? _____
5. Spain is bounded by _____ bodies of water. What do you think Spanish students do when they go on vacation to one of these coastal areas? _____

6. Look at the map. Listen while your teacher names some of the geographic points of interest discussed above. When you hear a location, place your finger on that area of the map. Your teacher will give you the correct answer after naming each location. How many did you get right? Try doing the same with a partner.

E. CITIES IN SPAIN

Here are some important cities in Spain (ciudades en España). The homestay family you select may live in one of them. The first letter of the name of each city is on the map. Use the list below to complete the names on the map.

Madrid	Valencia	Santiago	Córdoba	Zaragoza	Valladolid
Sevilla	Pamplona	Barcelona	Granada	Ciudad Real	Toledo
